

STEWART UMHOLTZ

Real Life Experience, Real Results.
Attorney General for the People

For the People.

Stu Umholtz has over 20 years experience in representing the People of the State of Illinois as a prosecutor and legal advisor. He has served as Tazewell County State's Attorney since 1995.

Family. Stu Umholtz and his wife, Valerie, celebrated their 25th anniversary in 2005 and have three children: Nicholas, Alexander & Anna.

Public Corruption

As the top prosecutor in his county, Stu Umholtz sets an example by prosecuting corrupt public officials. He has won multiple convictions, returning money to taxpayers, and applied the law fairly to everyone.

In the courtroom, protecting the public and getting justice.

Stu Umholtz has fought for justice in the courtroom. He has successfully prosecuted violent criminals from murderers to sexual predators. Stu Umholtz has spent his career protecting and serving the public.

A leader, working for better lives.

Stu Umholtz has worked with other community leaders to develop successful strategies to address hate crime, domestic violence, and child abuse. He's led a successful fight against meth manufacturers and worked with police and schools to successfully keep gangs out of our community. Stu Umholtz knows that we need to address the root causes of crime and not just convict offenders.

Protecting the vulnerable. Standing up for victims.

Stu Umholtz has successfully prosecuted those that prey on the public by exploiting seniors, preying on children, and devising fraudulent charities. He understands the need to treat victims with dignity and understanding.

Standing firm in representing the People.

As Attorney General, Stu Umholtz will insist that public officials honor their oath of office in conducting the People's business. With your help, Stu Umholtz can restore public confidence and end the era of "pay to play" politics in Illinois.